Notes from our President -- Linda Slaton

President's Notes:

The road tax was defeated in the November Election, but according to the Greenville News Sunday, November 16th, this issue is not over. Mayor White will ask the General Assembly for power to hold referendum on the tax for Greenville City. At present the state doesn't allow a city-only tax, but city leaders plan to push the state to grant that power. Also, there is a possibility of a gas tax increase to be proposed by the legislation in Columbia. With these two possible tax hikes the GCRWC needs to be prepared to act; therefore, I am requesting that each member bring the following information: Your State Senator, State house Member, City and Council Member. This information can be found on your attached portion of your voter registration card, scvotes.org, (go to voters,check your voter registration,submit), or by calling the election commission at 467-7250, or visit their office at 301 University Way. The elected officials to match your voting districts are listed in the directory.

This month we will elect the recipient of the Pennies from Heaven, who will be awarded $522.48. If you know of a worthy cause, please plan to present information at the December meeting. I would appreciate your emailing me (presgcrwc@yahoo.com) or calling me (288-0560) so I can make sure that you are on the agenda.

Let's not forget those members we have lost this year Faye Jay, Judy Cooter and an associate member, Mac Walters. We will have a tribute for them at the December members.

The December meeting will veer from our usual format in that we will be having a fashion show from Chico's and Thorn. Let's enjoy a time of social interaction as we go into the Christmas Season. Just know that we will be back to business as usual hitting the political scene hard at the January 22, 2015 meeting.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS FOR OCTOBER!

Magg Bailey, Pamela Farrell, Paige Gantt and Nany Sorensen
